

Program

What next with Cuba? The future of the EU's policy towards Cuba and human rights' issue

Under the auspices of Jerzy Buzek
President of the European Parliament

The seminar organized by the Lech Walesa Institute is an attempt to define the effectiveness of the current European common position toward Cuba, and to answer a question if it is possible to support in solidarity the advocates of system reforms on the island by the European states.

Moderator:
Jacek Saryusz-Wolski MEP
Former chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the European Parliament
Piotr Gulczyński
President of the Lech Walesa Institute
Ryszard Schnepf
Former Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of Poland
Polish Ambassador in Spain
Jaime Mayor Oreja MEP
Former Minister of Interior of Spain
Head of the Spanish Delegation of the EPP
José Ignacio Salafranca Sánchez-Neira MEP
Chairman of the Delegation to the Euro-Latin American Parliamentary Assembly
László Tókéš MEP
President of Hungarian National Council of Transylvania
Maciej Stasiński
Journalist, Gazeta Wyborcza
Teófilo de Luis Rodríguez
Member of the Spanish Congress
Blanca Reyes
Founder of Ladies in White
Francisco de Armas
International Representative of Oswaldo Payá
Alejandro González Raga
Cuban Political Prisoner of the Black Spring 2003
Guillermo Estévez
President of Unión Internacional de Ex Presos Políticos de Cuba
Omar López Montenegro
Executive Director, Foundation for Human Rights in Cuba
Heidi Hautala MEP
Chairwoman of the Parliamentarian Sub-committee on Human Rights
José Miguel Vivanco
Executive Director of Americas Division of Human Rights Watch

Venue - Date

European Parliament, Brussels,
Room József Antall, 6Q1
13 January 2010, 3 pm – 6 pm
6 pm – 7 pm Cocktail

Organizers

Lech Walesa Institute

Jarosław Wałęsa MEP

For more information, please contact:

Agnieszka Grątkiewicz
agnieszka.gratkiewicz@ilw.org.pl

Ludmila Kubacka
ludmila.kubacka@europarl.europa.eu